

WHY WAIT — for the — WEEKEND?

Located less than two hours from Chicago, it's hard to believe that stunning scenic overlooks, majestic canyons and seasonal waterfalls are waiting for you to explore their beauty. All of this and historic Starved Rock Lodge are nestled within Starved Rock State Park located near Utica, Illinois.

Why wait for the weekend? Escape to Starved Rock! Take our suggestion and book a midweek getaway. You'll find a greater sense of peace and quiet than you would on the weekends. Kick back and unwind in the indoor pool, hot tub and sauna or schedule a therapeutic, hot stone massage.

At Starved Rock Lodge, the past is powerfully present in the warm, old-fashioned hospitality that has never gone out of style. It's been the hallmark of this charming destination since guests first stepped through the doors back in the late 1930's. Built by the men of the Civilian Conservation Corps, the ambiance of yesteryear is still present in the Lodge and cabins.

Outdoor adventure awaits with a hike to the top of the Rock being first on the list of fun things to do. Add a river cruise aboard the Eagle I with lunch or dinner included in your ticket price. Hike the trails on your own or go with an experienced guide like Geology Joe. He'll tell you fun facts and turn your walk in the park into a wonderful memory.

A wide variety of midweek overnight packages are available from "History on Horseback" at Cedar Creek Ranch to the "Hops & Hideaway" option which lets you try craft beer at Tangled Roots Brewing Company.

Celebrate a special occasion and toast to it with Starved Rock Bubbly or visit August Hill Winery and see why their award-winning wines are among the best on the market.

Enjoy breakfast, lunch or dinner in the Main Dining Room. Outdoor dining on the Veranda combines great food with the best view in LaSalle County.

There's no better way to learn about the rich past of Starved Rock than on a Historic Trolley Tour (offered daily from June-October). One of the most popular activities are the musical tribute shows in the Great Hall. These matinees are paired with a delicious lunch buffet. From Nashville to Broadway, the talented vocalists will take you on a nostalgic walk down memory lane when you attend a "Tribute to the Stars" performance.
